ILA Annual Conference

Saturday 21 April 2018

Mary Ward House,
5-7 Tavistock Place, London WC1H 9SN

Richard Levin will anchor the ILA Annual Conference 2018 with a discussion of how certain key issues for restructuring are addressed in Chapter 11. A series of speakers will then focus on the issues from a UK perspective, as we think about where the UK regime may be superior, where it would benefit from reform and the extent to which the US Bankruptcy Code might be used as a model for reform. We will finish the day with a cross-border panel of experts considering how debts are discharged in their regimes, and we will think about what this might mean for the law reform agenda and the implications of Brexit for the analysis.
